

Application form for Industrial Hemp Without Use Application and Licensing

Information

Only use this form if you intend to cultivate hemp for purposes which do not include the use of any of the active parts of the plant. Active parts are those containing more than trace amounts of cannabinoids. If you intend to cultivate hemp for CBD production or any use that involves the active parts then a With Use licence is required. For more information on licence types please see Guidance for Industrial Hemp Licensing.

All relevant sections of this form must be completed and clearly legible for an application to be accepted. Applicants must include any additional documents required as listed at the end of the form under Fees and Documents. Failure to provide any documents or complete the form may delay an application.

A Licence fee is payable as outlined at Fees and Documents and an invoice will be issued following a positive licensing decision, no licence will be issued until full payment has been received.

Any licence issued on the basis of the information provided at application is on the understanding that true and accurate information has been provided. If any adverse or contrary information is discovered the GSC will seek to take action, which may result in any issued licence being revoked.

Information provided in this application will be used by the GSC to carry out checks to ensure the fitness and propriety of applicants to hold a licence. That information will be shared with third parties and other agencies and by completing this application you consent to the sharing of any data provided. Please see Guidance for Industrial Hemp Licensing for assistance filling in this form.

Applications can only be accepted by post or by hand and must contain original signatures, if you require a more accessible version of the form then please email canna@gov.im with your request. Completed applications can be sent to—
