

Application form for Cannabis Analysis Application and Licensing

Information

All relevant sections of this form must be completed and clearly legible for the GSC to accept an application for a licence to carry out analysis of cannabis on behalf of others. Applicants must include any additional documents required as listed at the end of the form under Fees and Documents. Failure to provide any documents or complete the form may delay an application. Information on how to fill out this form is contained in Guidance for Cannabis Analysis Application and Licensing.

A Licence fee is payable as outlined at Fees and Documents and, no licence will be issued until full payment has been received. Any application must be accompanied by an overview of the applicant's route to market. On receipt of a full application the GSC will undertake to process the application. Any licence issued on the basis of the information provided at application is on the understanding that true and accurate information has been provided. If any adverse or contrary information is discovered the GSC will seek to take action, which may result in any issued licences being revoked.

Information provided in this application will be used by the GSC to carry out checks to ensure the fitness and propriety of applicants to hold a licence. That information will be shared with third parties and other agencies and by completing this application you consent to the sharing of any data provided.

Applications can only be accepted by post or by hand and must contain original signatures, if you require a more accessible version of the form then please email canna@gov.im with your request. Completed applications and supporting documents can be sent to—
